ALL SORTS.

Thunder shower last night. Lloyd Tevis, President of Wells Fargo & Co., reached the city yesterday.

Witnesses in the California hoodie case are mysteriously disappearing.

The rumor that Hall and Fitzsimmons met and fought yesterday is reported a telegraphic fake.

"Masher" Miller is out on the streets of San Francisco again on bail, but he does not leer his eye any more at women he doesn't know.

Take a shy at the Robert Fulton Grand Opera or the Humboldt cigar at the Arlington House. A cultivated snicker always repeats on these brands.

Dr. H. Spieker and wife arrived in the city yesterday and gave a reception to their friends at the residence of George Vonderhyde. Mrs. Spieker is the daughter of Senator Maute.

Frank McCullough brought a stock of sweet clover in the Appeal office yesterday, which measured ten feet six inches long. It is one of these pesky weeds which grows without irrigation and is the worst thing known to impart a horrible flavor to cow's milk.

Following is the programme for tonight's entertainment at the Carson Opera House, Governor Colcord presiding:

Vocal Duet, "I Love Thee Amelia," Mrs. Hanford and Prof. Haymanson.

Lecture—A Visit to the Saxons, President W. A. Quayle.

Vocal solo, Miss Grace Wasson. Vocal solo, Miss Gertrude Wasson.

Old Jail Birds.

The four burglars who robbed Wells Fargo & Co's office at Dayton last month arrived in Carson last night and were taken to the prison by Chas. Bray. Each will serve 5 years. Cunningham had when he committed his last crime, only been out of San Quentin 13 days. Since 1879 Ellsworth, another one, has not seen Christmas or 4th of July out of jail. John Jackson is also from San Quentin and Watson is an ex-convict from Folsom Cal. and Joliet, Ill.

Dan Thompson of the Ormsby house testified that the men had taken a night lunch and paid for it in short bits. This testimony made Thompson an eye sore and as he stood near by them one of the toughs reached out and hit him under the eye raising a welt and a slight discoloration.

They are the worst consignment McCullough ever received.

It Was Tough.

The Sacramento News speaks thus of the beef sold there: "Say," said a man to the butcher of whom he purchased his daily supply of meat, "that last piece of steak I bought of you must have been old enough to vote." "Was it tough?" "Tough! could hardly cut it." "Oh, is that all? Well you ought to have heard another man kicking a day or two ago. He bought a piece that he said, was so tough that he said he couldn't get his fork into the gravy."

A Useless Recommendation.

The Virginia Chronicle says: A young lady of Ormsby county holding a first grade teachers' certificate to teach in any county in the State, endorsed by Governor Colcord, Orvis Ring, State Superintendent of Public Instruction John E. Jones, Surveyor General, if seeking a school in Lyon county has to undergo an examination before the Lyon County School Board before being considered eligible for the position. Whither are we drifting?

Dr. Fox treats private, chronic, and nervous diseases of men, nervous debility, impotence, stricture and all other weakness of manhood.

J. T. Murphy will have horse racing every month at Steamboat Springs; commencing on July 11, and running through the summer.

The Pratt Relief Fund.

The San Francisco Report calls the attention of San Francisco to the Appeal's 10-cent fund for Mrs. Pratt and calls on the citizens to subscribe. It hasn't been able to get a cent yet. This is because California has been settled up of late by a lot of close fist people who take their dimes to bed at night and hug them as they sleep. Twenty years ago a fund started for Mrs. Pratt in San Francisco would have rolled up $1000 a day. But that time has passed.

The following contributions were received yesterday:

Mint drops.....	40
Lyman Frisbie.....	50
Wm Thompson.....	25
Anonymous.....	25
Dairy Restaurant.....	10
Dr Cureton.....	10
Wm Crisler and family.....	50
Four Bodie toughs.....	40

Total.....$ 2 50
Previous contributions 11 55

Total.....$14 05

Accompanying the 40 cents was the following letter, dated Kuhlmann Bros. drug store:

For Mrs. Pratt. Hope you will raise a good fund for her.

FOUR BODIE TOUGHS.

Stockmen Going Out of Business.

The Helena, (Mont.) Journal says: It is reported upon reliable authority that many of the big herds of cattle in Northern Montana are to be sent to market this year. Some companies are preparing to ship everything and go out of the business. This is rendered a matter of necessity in some localities. Small farmers and ranchers are settling in thickly and are fencing up nearly all the available water, while sheepmen are occupying the country more and more every year. They are said to require less attention and are considered of much more advantage to the country. Small springs and diminutive streams will suffice for them, and in the opinion of a man well posted in the matter, it is only a question of a few years when large herds of cattle in Montana will be numbered as a thing of the past.

California's Hoodie Case.

The Legislature hoodie case now being tried at San Francisco, is developing some very rank purveyors. One man admits having received $20,000 in cash from another but can't recollect what he did with so trifling a sum.

He should be sent to jail at once and given a chance to refresh his memory, but being in California, and having a pull, of course nothing will be done.

The precedent was established when Leland Stanford got on the stand and couldn't remember anything, and now poor memories are a sufficient excuse for any witness who does not wish to answer an awkward question.

Peffer's Ambition.

TOPEKA (Kan.), July 23.—The rumor that Senator Peffer is figuring for the nomination of the People's party was confirmed today. The Alliance Advocate, the People's party organ in Kansas, used his name, and in an editorial stated that Kansas took the initiative steps in his nomination, and is entitled to the honor.

Senator Peffer's friends say that the man who was big enough to beat Ingalls is big enough for a Presidential candidate.

Talk is Cheap.

The Central Nevada says that Frank Martin cleared 18 cents a pound on two cars of wool shipped to Philadelphia. This Spring commission buyers went through the State and talked themselves hoarse explaining how wool was worth 13 cents a pound, though for the finest fibre 15 cents might be given.

A Desirable Change.

There is a change of time on the S. P. R. R. by which the west-bound train No. 4 will leave Reno at 9:30 instead of 11:30. This gives Carson people but 25 minutes to wait over at Reno.

Reasonable Terms.

The theatrical manager of a company that will go on the road next season heard from somebody that the town of Hawthorne would be worth taking in on his travels, so he wrote to the Walker Lake Bulletin for particulars and open time, says the New York Dramatic Mirror.

In due course the following unique reply was received:

Sir: Your favor of June 26 at hand and noted. The population of this town is between 600 and 700, but by the looks of some of the people it may be greatly increased by September.

The stage is 12 ft. long, 12 ft. wide and nine feet high, but by removing the roof and walls you can get a great deal more room. Our scenery is quite nice—about the best in the State. A short way from the Opera House are the mountains, and you can find no better scenery.

AL. MCCARTHY.

The hall will seat about as many as you can get in it.

The recipient of this letter decided to leave Hawthorne out of his route. He feared that his comedy was not funny enough to touch the humorous level of that town.

Good Leather in Him.

Over four years ago Jno. D. Leutjens began prospecting in the hill just back of the Episcopal church in Austin, and except on special occasions, has worked there every day to the present time without having realized one dollar for his toil. Mr. Leutjens is an old timer of Austin, and is known by every one to be a sterling man. His hair is white with age and he has a family to support, who reside with him on South street near his mine, and his wonderful energy and industry in the face of constant failure marks him as a fitting example of human perseverance. Mr. Leutjens is looking for the lost Whitlatch ledge, and has put in the longest shift on record: ten hours a day, six days in the week for four years; equal to 12,480 hours, without realizing one dollar. Who can beat this record.—Austin Advocate.

George N. Barnes has taken up his residence in Carson. The Gentleman is now prepared to do fine piano tuning, repairing and regulating. Terms reasonable. References given. P. O. Box 303. Residence, Judge Hawthorne's. j182w
